

Row Nova Scotia Provincial Team

2017 National Rowing Championships and Canada Cup

Selection Document

The 2017 National Rowing Championships (NRC's) will be held in Burnaby, British Columbia from November 9-12, 2017. The NRC's are Canada's National Small Boat Championships, where Canada's best rowers compete to be named National Champions, and to be identified for future National Teams as well as nominations to Sport Canada's Athlete Assistance Program (Carding). Selection to represent Nova Scotia at the NRC's will be highly competitive and highly selective.

The 2017 NRC's have been move back to the second week of November, due to the late date of the 2017 World Championships. As a result the timing and location of the 2017 NRC selection event has changed. Selection will now take place on Lake Banook on September 23, 2017.

This year the NRC's will be combined with the Canada Cup. The Canada Cup will be a crew boat event, which will allow athletes from Atlantic Canada as a regional team. Team Atlantic crews will be able to combine forces to take on crews from across Canada; to be eligible for Canada Cup events athletes must be selected to represent Nova Scotia at the NRC's.

7. Exemptions: Exemptions will be considered, if an athlete has a valid medical condition which is supported by a Medical Doctor's Note, provided the athlete will be ready compete at the NRC's and has a strong history of performance in past RADAR testing and 2000m racing at the National or International Level.

Selection Committee:

The Provincial Selection Committee will review athlete performances. The selection committee will be composed of the Provincial Team Coach and two competitive coaches appointed by the Row NS High Performance Committee. The coaches will be from different clubs in NS. These coaches will review the results and make their recommendations for team composition to the Row NS High Performance Committee for approval.

Appeals:

An appeal must be submitted in writing to the President of Row NS within 48 hours after the official team selection has taken place or within 48 hours after any disciplinary action has been levied. Row NS contact information is provided in this document. An appeal must be answered within 5 business days after it has been received.

The President of Row NS will appoint the Appeals Committee and the committee will decide if they will act as a panel of review of the decision of the Provincial Team Selection Committee or if they will deal with this appeal on the basis of a hearing de novo.

An appeal may only be considered if there are sufficient grounds for the appeal. Sufficient grounds include:

- Making a decision for which the 'respondent' did not have authority or jurisdiction as set out by the governing documents
- Failure to follow procedures as laid out in the Selection Criteria
- Failure to consider relevant information (or account for irrelevant information) in making a selection decision

The Appeals Committee's decision will be final and binding.
