

Row Nova Scotia Provincial Team
2022 National Rowing Championships
Selection Document

The 2022 National Rowing Championships (NRCs) will be held in Duncan, British Columbia from November 10-13, 2022. The NRCs are Canada's National Small Boat Championships, where Canada's best rowers compete to be named National Champions, and to be identified for future National Teams. Selection to represent Nova Scotia at the NRC's will be highly competitive and highly selective.

The 2022 NRCs will run from November 10-13 in Duncan, BC. Selection will involve a criterion-based pre-selection and/or an on-water selection event on Lake Banook September 25, 2022. Athletes are encouraged to meet the pre-selection criteria in order to minimize the expense of last minute flight booking.

There will be no Canada Cup event or banquet this year.

Selection and Prerequisites:

To be eligible to trial for Team Nova Scotia at the 2022 NRCs an athlete must meet the following criteria:

1. Registered with Rowing Canada Aviron as a member of a Nova Scotia rowing club.
2. Have submitted a completed Application Form to the Provincial Team Coach, no later than 5:00PM (Atlantic) on Tuesday September 20, 2022. Applications may be sent to coach@rowns.ca.
3. Athletes must have completed a 2000m Ergometer Test between January 1, 2022 and September 20, 2022 and submit their results to the Provincial Team coach coach@rowns.ca prior to the application deadline.
 - a. To be eligible to trial athletes must achieve a minimum 2K standard (listed in the table below) by the September 20 deadline (forwarded to coach@rowns.ca); athletes trying out for Lightweight positions must weigh in at FISA max+2.5% (74.43Kg (male) 60.48Kg (female)), or less for testing.

	Hwt Men	Lwt Men	Hwt Women	Lwt Women
Jr	6:45	7:13	7:51	8:14
U-23	6:23	6:51	7:28	7:49
Sr. A	6:15	6:42	7:17	7:38

- b. Selected athletes will be expected to attend pre NRC training camps and training sessions unless excused for medical or out of province training events, or approved (by the Provincial Coach) for other reasons. Lightweights must show progressive evidence that they be able to make NRC weight classes (72.5Kg and 59Kg) for November 10-13, if trying out for a lightweight event.
4. Pre-selection: Athletes may be preselected to the Row NS NRC Team if they meet the following criteria:
 - a. Athletes who have competed for Canada during the 2022 year at a:
 - i. World Championships (Junior, U23, Senior)
 - ii. National Team Development regatta (Henley Royal Regatta, Holland Beker)

- iii. World Cup
 - iv. Athletes who are currently receiving Sport Canada Athlete & RCA Athlete Assistance Program funding (carding)
 - v. Athletes invited to train full time at the National Training Centre in Duncan, BC
 - b. Athletes who have competed for Canada on a national development team during the 2022 year at:
 - i. CanAmMex Regatta
 - ii. Pan Am Games (rowing)
 - iii. FISU/World University Rowing Championships
 - c. Athletes identified and supported via a National Talent Identification Program (RBC Training Ground, or RCA Next Gen Program).
 - d. Athletes who achieve >93% GMS (2008 edition) for the event they are applying for at the 2022 Nova Scotia Sprints Regatta in either their heat or final.
5. Last Chance Selection Trial: time trial performance at the Row NS NRC Selection Trials which will take place in Dartmouth, N.S. on the morning of September 25, 2022. Athletes will time trial in a 2x1K format in the NRC event they wish to be considered for. To be invited, athletes must meet the following targets:
 - a. Cumulative on water GMS percentages greater than 90% at the Row NS NRC time trials will be granted automatic selection to the team. The selection committee may consider athletes who achieve performances lower than 90%. Athletes performing below 90% will not be guaranteed selection; the committee will review the on-water racing conditions and relative proximity to the top performers within the trials group.
 - b. Lightweight athletes will be weighed in 2-1 hours prior to the first flight of racing and must be at or below NRC weight +2.5% (males 74.43Kg, females 60.48Kg) for these trials
6. Out of Province Athletes: Athletes who are training at an out of province university, club or National Training Center and cannot attend the Team NS Selection Trials must meet the pre-selection standards listed above or meet the Performance Group 2K erg Standard, and be actively training with their University's Frosh, Junior Varsity or Varsity, or High Performance club program; lightweight athletes must have accurate and verifiable evidence of being at (or under) race weight +1% 73.5 (male) or 59.59Kg (female)) by October 23, 2021.
7. Lightweights - lightweight athletes must have accurate and verifiable evidence of being at (or under) race weight +1% (73.2 (male) or 59.59Kg (female)) by October 23, 2022.

8. Exemptions: Exemptions will be considered if an athlete has a valid medical condition which is supported by a Medical Doctor's Note, provided the athlete will be ready compete at the NRCs and has a strong history of performance in past RADAR testing and 2000m racing at the National or International Level.

Selection Committee:

The Provincial Selection Committee will review athlete performances. The selection committee will be composed of the Provincial Team Coach and two competitive coaches appointed by the Row NS High Performance Committee. The coaches will be from different clubs in NS. These coaches will review the results and make their recommendations for team composition to the Row NS High Performance Committee for approval.

Appeals:

An appeal must be submitted in writing to the President of Row NS within 48 hours after the official team selection has taken place or within 48 hours after any disciplinary action has been levied. Row NS contact information is provided in this document. An appeal must be answered within 5 business days after it has been received.

The President of Row NS will appoint the Appeals Committee and the committee will decide if they will act as a panel of review of the decision of the Provincial Team Selection Committee or if they will deal with this appeal on the basis of a hearing de novo.

An appeal may only be considered if there are sufficient grounds for the appeal. Sufficient grounds include:

- Making a decision for which the 'respondent' did not have authority or jurisdiction as set out by the governing documents
- Failure to follow procedures as laid out in the Selection Criteria
- Failure to consider relevant information (or account for irrelevant information) in making a selection decision

The Appeals Committee's decision will be final and binding.

The National Rowing Championships, Row Nova Scotia's participation, and all selection events are subject to cancelation due to COVID-19 and public health guidelines and regulations in Nova Scotia and the host province of British Columbia.
